DETAILED ACTIONDouble Patenting

1. A rejection based on double patenting of the "same invention" type finds its support in the language of 35 U.S.C. 101 which states that "whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process ... may obtain a patent therefor ..." (Emphasis added). Thus, the term "same invention," in this context, means an invention drawn to identical subject matter. See Miller v. Eagle Mfg. Co., 151 U.S. 186 (1894); In re Ockert, 245 F.2d 467, 114 USPQ 330 (CCPA 1957); and In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970).

A statutory type (35 U.S.C. 101) double patenting rejection can be overcome by canceling or amending the conflicting claims so they are no longer coextensive in scope. The filing of a terminal disclaimer cannot overcome a double patenting rejection based upon 35 U.S.C. 101.

2. Claims 8 and 13-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 as claiming the same invention as that of claims 6,12,14, and 15, respectively, of prior U.S. Patent No. 6,742,069 B2. This is a double patenting rejection.

The claims noted above contain the exact same limitations and claim language.

3. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

4. Claims 1-7,9-12, and 16-20 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-6 and 8-11 of U.S. Patent No. 6,742,069 B2. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the patent claims contain all of the limitations present in the application claims plus some others.

Art Unit: 2111

The claims correspond to each other as follows:

Application	'069 patent
1	1
2	1
3	1
4	2
5	4
6	5
7	6
9	8
11	10
12	11
17	1
18	1
19	3
20	4

As for claims 16-20, it is noted that these claims recite means for performing the method steps recited in the method claims as noted in the table. It would have been obvious to provide means for performing the steps in the method in order to implement the method.

Art Unit: 2111

Claims 1-6 and 8-11 of U.S. Patent No. 6,742,069 contains every element of claims 1-7,9-12, and 16-20 as noted above of the instant application, and as such anticipate claims 1-7,9-12, and 16-20 of the instant application.

"A later patent claim is not patentably distinct from an earlier patent claim if the later claim is obvious over, or anticipated by, the earlier claim. In re Longi, 759 F.2d at 896, 225 USPQ at 651 (affirming a holding of obviousness-type double patenting because the claims at issue were obvious over claims in four prior patents); In re Berg, 140 F.3d at 1437, 46 USPQ2d at 1233 (Fed. Cir. 1998) (affirming a holding of obviousness-type double patenting where a patent application claim to a genus is anticipated by a patent claim to a species within that genus)." ELI LILLY AND COMPANY v BARR LABORATORIES, INC., United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, ON PETITION FOR REHEARING EN BANC (Decided: May 30, 2001).

Although the application claims are arranged without some of the wherein clauses present in the patent claims the patent claims do contain each limitation present in each of the application claims. For example, claim 1 of the application omits the wherein clauses that are contained in claim 1 of the patent. Claim 2 includes one of the wherein clauses from patent claim 1 and application claim 3 contains the other wherein clause present in patent claim 1. A similar situation is present for each of the other claims as noted above.

Specification

5. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: the appendix attached to the end of the specification is improper. The only use of an appendix allowed or contemplated by the Rules is for the inclusion of computer program listings. The listing of related applications should be contained at the beginning of the specification.

Appropriate correction is required.

The following guidelines illustrate the preferred layout for the specification of a utility application. These guidelines are suggested for the applicant's use.

Arrangement of the Specification

As provided in 37 CFR 1.77(b), the specification of a utility application should include the following sections in order. Each of the lettered items should appear in upper case, without underlining or bold type, as a section heading. If no text follows the section heading, the phrase "Not Applicable" should follow the section heading:

Art Unit: 2111

- (a) TITLE OF THE INVENTION.
- (b) CROSS-REFERENCE TO RELATED APPLICATIONS.
- (c) STATEMENT REGARDING FEDERALLY SPONSORED RESEARCH OR DEVELOPMENT.
- (d) THE NAMES OF THE PARTIES TO A JOINT RESEARCH AGREEMENT
- (e) INCORPORATION-BY-REFERENCE OF MATERIAL SUBMITTED ON A COMPACT DISC (See 37 CFR 1.52(e)(5) and MPEP 608.05. Computer program listings (37 CFR 1.96(c)), "Sequence Listings" (37 CFR 1.821(c)), and tables having more than 50 pages of text are permitted to be submitted on compact discs.) or REFERENCE TO A "MICROFICHE APPENDIX" (See MPEP § 608.05(a). "Microfiche Appendices" were accepted by the Office until March 1, 2001.)
- (f) BACKGROUND OF THE INVENTION.
  - (1) Field of the Invention.
  - (2) Description of Related Art including information disclosed under 37 CFR 1.97 and 1.98.
- (g) BRIEF SUMMARY OF THE INVENTION.
- (h) BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF THE SEVERAL VIEWS OF THE DRAWING(S).
- (i) DETAILED DESCRIPTION OF THE INVENTION.
- (j) CLAIM OR CLAIMS (commencing on a separate sheet).
- (k) ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE (commencing on a separate sheet).
- (l) SEQUENCE LISTING (See MPEP § 2424 and 37 CFR 1.821-1.825. A "Sequence Listing" is required on paper if the application discloses a nucleotide or amino acid sequence as defined in 37 CFR 1.821(a) and if the required "Sequence Listing" is not submitted as an electronic document on compact disc).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

6. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

7. Claims 1 and 16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Weber, U.S. Pat. No. 5,937,174 (cited by applicant).

As per claim 1, Weber shows a method of electrically coupling a central processing unit (CPU) of a server (122) to a plurality of interface modules (138.1,138.2) comprising: routing an I/O bus having a first format from said central processing unit to primary sides of a plurality of bus adapter chips (208,210); and routing an I/O bus of said first format from secondary sides of said bus adapter chips to respective ones of said interface modules (138.1,138.2) (see fig. 2 in which the I/O bus 252 is routed to the primary sides of bus adapters 208 and 210 and I/O buses are routed from the secondary sides of the bus adapters to respective interface modules 138.1 and 138.2). Weber shows all of the steps recited in claim 1.

As per claim 16, Weber shows a system for electrically coupling a central processing unit (CPU) of a server (122) to a plurality of interface modules (138.1,138.2), the system comprising: means routing an I/O bus having a first format from said central processing unit to primary sides of a plurality of bus adapter chips (208,210); and means for routing an I/O bus of said first format from secondary sides of said bus adapter chips to respective ones of said interface modules (138.1,138.2) (see fig. 2 in which the I/O bus 252 is routed to the primary sides of bus adapters 208 and 210 and I/O buses are routed from the secondary sides of the bus adapters to respective interface modules 138.1 and 138.2). Weber shows all of the elements recited in claim 16.
